A versatile director/cameraman based in Leeds with over thirty years experience in broadcast and corporate production. Trained at the BBC as a camera operator and progressed into directing both single and multi camera productions and shooting on most of the current digital tape formats from HD to DV. I have a comprehensive knowledge of the production process with credits on more than five hundred corporate videos for a wide range of blue chip clients. I'm used to shooting quickly and creatively within tight budgets and demanding deadlines, and have worked in Europe, Australia and the U.S.A.

1984 - 2005

Walnut Media Communications - Managing Director

Initially formed to produce corporate videos, Walnut Media became a successful visual communications company producing corporate presentations for blue chip clients. Whilst involved with the day to day running of the company and managing a dedicated team of staff and freelance professionals, my major role within Walnut Media was Producing and Directing both videos and corporate events.

In documentary productions, or where tight budgetary controls dictated, I would often assume the role of Director / Cameraman, shooting on Betacam or DVCAM and editing on our non-linear edit suite.
